

LOCATION: Hong Kong

DID YOU KNOW?

Hong Kong is home to tall buildings, millions of people, and some very special animals. Hong Kong's current total population is 7.8 million. Hong Kong is 6-times the size of Washington DC. Did you know that it is also the place where dim sum - a popular Chinese meal of small plates - originated? Anjali read about dim sum in a book about the history of popular foods from around the world. She learned that it started thousands of years ago as travelers journeyed to the Silk Road in China. How long is the Silk Road?

My favorite dim sum dessert is mango pudding because I love fruit!

Anjali

HONG KONG MATH:

OTHER FUN FACTS:

- There are 263 islands in Hong Kong.
- Hong Kong has the world's longest covered escalator.
- Hong Kong has 44 public swimming pool complexes and around 32,000 recreation and sports activities.

